What is this Financial Services Guide?

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) has been prepared to inform you of the financial services offered by CMM, how CMM operates, how CMM is paid, how CMM deals with client complaints and any interests, associations or relationships that could influence CMM.

This FSG is designed to assist you in deciding whether to use any of those services and contains important information about the financial services offered by CMM.

What advice is provided by CMM?

When we provide you with advice about membership of CML and the protections available to members of CML, we will be providing you with general advice, which means that the advice will not take into account your objectives, financial situation or needs.

When we provide you with general advice about membership or about CML's protections, we will only consider the cost and terms of the protections offered by CML. In giving you advice about the costs and terms of the protections, we will not have compared the protections to other financial products available in the market place.

You will ONLY receive a statement of advice (SOA) if we provide you with advice which takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs. The SOA will contain the advice, which will enable you to make an informed decision about membership of CML and the protections it makes available to its members.

What kinds of financial services are we authorised to provide and what kinds of financial product/s do those services relate to?

CMM is authorised to issue, advise and deal in miscellaneous mutual risk products on CML's behalf. We will do this as an agent for CML. This means that we represent and act for CML not for you.

CMM has been given binding authority by CML which means that when the CML Board exercises its discretion to accept a member or to pay a claim CMM is authorised to enter into a binding contract on CML's behalf.

When will I get a product disclosure statement?

If we offer to arrange the issue of membership in CML or one of its protections, CMM will provide you with a product disclosure statement (PDS), and may provide you with one or more Supplementary PDS (SPDS), unless you already have an up to date PDS from CML. The PDS and any SPDS provided to you will contain information that will enable you to make an informed decision about joining CML and applying for any of the protections that it offers to its members.

Who is responsible for the financial services provided?

Who will be providing the financial services?
